On-Campus Housing Accommodations

This part is only for on-campus housing accommodations. Hotel reservations must be made on your own. Hotels in the Boston College area are listed on our web site, but none is truly convenient either to Boston College or the city.

Conference accommodations will be available in modern, air-conditioned apartment/suites in Boston College dormitories near the conference hall. Entire suites may be booked by family groups. These facilities are two-bedroom apartments with bath (with some four-bedroom/two-bath suites available for family groups). Each bedroom has two beds, and is suitable for either single or double occupancy. Telephones are available in each building but not in the rooms.

The conference has reserved these accommodations for June 23 through June 27.
