

The Department of Slavic & Eastern Languages
College & Graduate School of Arts & Sciences
Boston College

Study programs in Saint Petersburg (Russia)

Program application

Program(s) for which you are applying (year)	Fall	Spring	Summer
Undergraduate Study Program	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Graduate Study / Research Program	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Dostoevskij Graduate Seminar			<input type="checkbox"/>

Legal name
Last name _____ First name _____ Middle _____

Imja i otchestvo (if used or known) _____

Social Security number _____ Eagle ID, if BC student _____

Citizenship _____ Passport N° _____ Date of birth _____ Sex _____ Marital status _____

Ethnic information (for statistical purposes only, optional), circle relevant field:

Black, non Hispanic origin American Indian / Alaskan Native White, non-Hispanic origin
Asian / Pacific Islander Hispanic other _____

Current address

Current telephone(s) H/W/F

eMail

Emergency contact (name, address, telephone, eMail, relationship)

Permanent address (if different from current address above)

Please describe your current academic or professional status

Colleges and universities attended, most recent first

Institution from—to major(s) degree date awarded/expected

--

Personal statement: Attach a 750-1000 word essay, in English or Russian, in which you describe yourself and indicate your reasons for wanting to participate in the program, your qualifications in Russian language and literature, and how you see this program helping you to attain your long-range academic and career objectives.

References: Request a letter of support and recommendation from a faculty member who knows your work well and can also attest to your abilities in Russian. List below the name and address of the person who has agreed to provide this letter.

--

Special preferences and needs (academic, dietary, health and allergies, smoking, pets, housing)

--

Hobby interests. Would you like to pursue any of these while in St Petersburg?

--

Transcript: Submit an official transcript from your most recent degree program.

Agreement and release:

If I accept a place in a Boston College St Petersburg Program, I, the student, agree to:

- participate fully in the academic program by attending all classes and activities during the academic term;
- accept full legal and financial responsibility for my stay abroad and for the preparations leading to that stay;
- be responsible for the payment of tuition and registration fees and for additional accommodations which I have arranged beyond the standard accommodations package;
- grant Boston College, its employees, agents and authorized partners full authority to act in an attempt to safeguard and preserve my health and safety during my participation in the program, including routine emergency medical treatment on my behalf at my expense and returning me to the United States at my own expense or that of my insurance carrier;

- respect the laws and customs of the Russian Federation, the academic regulations of Boston College, and all other reasonable standards of scholarly and personal conduct related to my program as promulgated by Boston College and its officers, by the Department of Slavic & Eastern Languages, by the Office of International Studies (OIS), and by its relevant consortium partners, the Institut russkoj literatury Rossijskoj Akademii Nauk (IRL/RAN) and the Muzej Dostojevskogo.
- accept termination of my participation in this program with no refund of fees and with responsibility for transportation costs to my home if my conduct should be determined to be detrimental to the best interests of the program or Boston College, such decision to be at the sole discretion of the program chairmen or their delegates, with the concurrence of the appropriate representative of the Office of International Studies (OIS) at Boston College.

For and in consideration of my acceptance in this program, I agree to indemnify, hold harmless, release and forever discharge Boston College, its Trustees, employees, agents, and cooperating institutions and their officers and agents from any and all claims and expenses, including attorney's fees, for any injury, loss, or damage related to the St Petersburg Program or suffered by me (including those related to travel to and from St Petersburg).

Student signature _____ Printed name _____ Date _____

On behalf of dependent students (if claimed as a dependent on either parent's tax return):

I hereby give my son/daughter named above permission to participate in a Boston College St Petersburg study program.

I have read the agreement and release above and agree to be jointly responsible for any financial obligation incurred by my son/daughter related to the program.

Signature _____ Printed name _____ Date _____